PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Video Production and Editing certificate program will educate, encourage, inspire, support, and create the next generation of video production professionals. This student-centered, hands-on program provides students with a solid core of video production knowledge and teaches them how to grow beyond the program curriculum with guidance from highly qualified, full-time and part-time faculty with extensive experience in video production. Our hands-on approach to learning will build confident, prepared, polished graduates ready to prosper in the field of video production. Our aim is to create well-rounded storytellers. Our students find great characters and tell their stories passionately.

• Students will learn to shoot, and edit in the video medium a finished segment
• Produce videos that can be uploaded to the web or television broadcast ready
• Get a start in an industry that has been projected to grow in 2016
• This program prepares students for work in the film and television production industries
• Students may choose to continue their education at a 2 or 4 year degree granting institution or a film school
• Turn your creativity into a career where every day is different and interesting

*Video Production and Editing programs are located at 200 E. 9th Avenue, Denver, CO 80203
