Families Forward Resource Center

Families Forward Resource Center (FFRC) has been strengthening families in northeast metro Denver since 1995. We believe strong families are the key to strong communities and so have established the following:

Vision: Safe, healthy and prosperous communities in northeast Denver and north Aurora.

Mission: To enrich entire families through partnership and services that create a safe, healthy, and connected community.

Values:

- Promoting self-empowerment of individuals, families and communities to achieve self-reliance

- Building a foundation of hope, integrity and community pride within staff and volunteers
- Working with families through relationships based on shared power and mutual respect
- Believing that healthy families nurture successful children and promote thriving communities

Immediate assistance to be given –

- ☎ Gift certificates for Kings Soopers in $5 amounts, while supplies last each month. These can be used for gas or food.
- ☎ Bus cards with RTD and maps of the city bus routes, while supplies last each month.
- ☎ “To Go” food bags for emergency meal assistance-hopefully the congregation can help supply food for the bags.
- ☎ Packets that describe the resources available in the community.
- ☎ A church volunteer helps navigate which community resources are closest and which most closely apply to a need.
- ☎ There is a public phone at Calvary to make calls.
- ☎ There is one shower for women and one shower for men.
- ☎ There is a washing machine and dryer onsite.
