

FREE Financial Counseling is Available at the Educational Opportunity Center on Auraria Campus

Denver's Financial Empowerment Center delivers free financial coaching at this location. A trained coach is on-site every Wednesday to help you build a budget that will allow you to pay down debt, begin developing savings, and make your money go further.

To schedule an appointment, call Educational Opportunity Center at 303-352-8746 or Financial Empowerment Center at 720-944-2498

Learn what a healthy financial picture looks like for you and create your own definition of financial success by working with our coaches. Our personal finance coaches are certified through the Association for Financial Counseling, Planning and Education and are experts in the foundations of personal financial health.

Identify where you want to go and change behaviors that don't serve you. Our coaches use proven methods to help you along the way. Coaches ask clarifying questions, encourage you to set goals, help you focus on results, and provide the tools, support and structure to accomplish your goals.

Reach your goals - build savings, get out from under the burden of debt, understand credit, pay off student loans, support a business, buy a home, stick to a budget, plan for retirement, and more. Whatever the goal, we'll help you get there. Our coaches monitor your specific goals, objectives and outcomes to provide accountability and to help you achieve tangible results.
