Your 2023–2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. According to the Department of Education, before offering Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this form and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information will be corrected.

Household Information

List below the people in your parent(s) household. Include:

- Yourself (STUDENT)
- Your parent(s) – even if you don’t live with your parent(s)
 - If your parent(s) are not currently married but are living together, then list both.
 - If your parent has remarried, then list their spouse.
- Your parent(s)' other child(ren)
 - If your parent(s) will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2023 through June 30, 2024.
 - If the other child(ren) would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2023-2024.
 - Include child(ren) who meet either of these standards, even if they do not live with your parent(s).
 - Do not include child(ren) your parent(s) are paying child support for.
 - Do not report foster child(ren).
- Other people – if they now live with your parent(s) and your parent(s) provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support, from July 1, 2023 through June 30, 2024.
